Letter of Intent to Collaborate
Between
Board of Regent of the University Systems of Georgia
By and on Behalf of Georgia State University ("Georgia State") and its J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Atlanta, United States of America
And
Gazi University
Ankara, Turkey

In furtherance of mutual goals to foster internationalization of education, officials from the above-named institutions hereby express their intent to collaborate at university level.

Based upon discussions held during the January 15-19, 2014 campus visit by a delegation from Gazi University to Georgia State, the two universities commit to continue their dialogue on identifying areas of common interests to expand the extent of their long-standing relationship. Both institutions have identified the exploration of a possible 2+2 program as an area of common educational interest.

Specific details for implementing the above program will be developed mutually and reflected in follow-on agreements to be negotiated and signed by authorized individuals from each institution.

This letter shall not constitute a binding agreement and is expressly contingent upon execution of a program-specific agreement by and between Georgia State and Gazi University.
