RE: Agreement for a Student, Faculty and Researcher Exchange entered into between the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia by and on behalf of Georgia State University ("Georgia State" or "GSU") through its College of Arts & Sciences' School of Music and National Chiayi University, through its College of Humanities and Arts, Chiayi, Taiwan ("NCYU") dated December 20, 2012.

Dear Professor Dr. Rong-Yi Liu:

In accordance with the terms of the above referenced Agreement, Georgia State and NCYU agree to amend as follows:

Section 5A is hereby amended by replacing the third sentence of the second paragraph:

1. To assess English language proficiency of NCYU students, the Home and Host Institution’s Program Directors will audition and interview all prospective students. This procedure will be done either in person or via Skype and will be recorded.
2. A representative from the Dean’s Office (e.g., Director of International Programs) will either be present for or hear a recording of the interview.
3. The students will (a) perform five minutes of contrasting musical material, and (b) engage in a ten-minute dialog in English with the Director(s). Music and English skills will be assessed through this process.

Section 6A is hereby amended by replacing the second sentence of the second paragraph:

At GSUe, the language of instruction is English, and faculty/researchers from NCYU will be required to provide proof of proficiency in English.

It is understood that all other terms and conditions of the original Agreement for a Student, Faculty and Researcher Exchange shall remain in full force and effect.

If the terms of this letter are acceptable, please indicate your acceptance by signing in the space provided below.
