Letter of Intent to Collaborate

Between

Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia
by and on behalf of Georgia State University (“Georgia State”)
Atlanta, Georgia, United States of America

And

The International Office of the Universidade Santa Cecília
(“UNISANTA”) on behalf of your Rectory,
Santos, São Paulo, Brazil

Following a visit to Georgia State University to participate in its International Education Week from November 17-20, 2014, Ms. Maria Claudia Salaro, Director of the Saluton Language Center, and representing Universidade Santa Cecília as a guest speaker in a Brazil-focused event - From North to South: How the World Has Influenced Brazil - had the opportunity to visit with university officials to discuss mutual areas of collaboration to foster internationalization goals at Georgia State and Universidade Santa Cecília. Discussions included, among other topics, beneficial student programs, joint research, language programs, etc.

In furtherance of this meeting and established goals therefore, officials from Georgia State University and Universidade Santa Cecília hereby express their intent to collaborate starting with the participation of Universidade Santa Cecília students in Georgia State’s 2015 Summer Institute.

Specific details for implementing the above program as well as other initiatives will be developed mutually and reflected in future agreements or relevant program documents to be negotiated and signed by authorized individuals from each institution.

This letter shall not constitute a binding agreement and is expressly contingent upon the execution of appropriate documentation including where appropriate, a Memorandum of Understanding and/or a Program-Specific Agreement by and between Universidade Santa Cecília and Georgia State University.
