The Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia by and on behalf of Georgia State University and its College of Arts and Sciences ("Georgia State") and Sejong University and its College of Liberal Arts ("Sejong University") enter into this Memorandum of Cooperation (the "MOC") in order to promote international cooperation in education and research.

1. Purpose of MOC Both parties agree to establish and encourage mutually beneficial scientific, technological, educational and other relations which may entail the following types of activities:

- Exchange of academic staff members for the purpose of research, teaching and the presentation of special courses in their fields of specialization;
- Student exchange and study abroad programs;
- Establishment of joint research programs;
- Collaboration on third party funded educational or economic assistance activities;
- Exchange of postgraduate students in respect of specific research projects or courses of interest and importance;
- Exchange of scientific and educational literature produced by either or both of the parties, as well as the exchange of materials on the most relevant and topical research by researchers at both Georgia State University and Sejong University and
- Organization of conferences, seminars and symposia of mutual interest to the institutions.

Please note: Georgia State's Policy on Travel to Countries with Travel Warnings governs travel by Georgia State students, faculty and staff to countries for which the U.S. Department of State has issued a Travel Warning. The University does not sponsor travel for undergraduate students to a country for which a Travel Warning has been issued. Travel by faculty, staff and graduate students must be approved by specified Georgia State administrators.

2. Program Specific Agreements This MOC is designed to facilitate development of mutually beneficial exchanges/programs and to promote research and educational relationships, and should not be deemed to create legal and financial relationships between the parties.

WHEREFORE the parties to this Agreement signify their acceptance of the terms and conditions contained herein by signing in the spaces below.
